

Sloim Roizen In The Army

This is Sloim Roizen, my mother's brother-in-law, in the army during his military service. The photo was taken sometime in the 1930s.

Ruhla Roizen, one of my mother's younger sisters, lived in Saveni with her husband, Sloim Roizen, and they left for Israel from there. They had no children and are no longer alive today.