

Janos In The City Park

This is my grandfather, my cousin Klari, and me. I went on walks with my grandfather quite often. I liked to go with him because he told me interesting stories on the way.

My grandfather was a very good-looking man. He wore a top-hat and it was always a joy to walk with him on Andrassy Road [in Pest] because we lived nearby. Grandpa Ullmann prayed in the morning. He didn't go to temple much, but he prayed, every morning.
