

Jakub Bromberg's Birth Certificate

Bodzentynski Obywatelski Urząd
 Długość 10 cm, szerokość 10 cm, data 1946 r. 17 maja 1946 r. Gmina Bodzentyn

Długość 10 cm, szerokość 10 cm, data 1946 r. 17 maja 1946 r. Gmina Bodzentyn

Nr 5

ŚWIADECTWO URODZENIA I CHRZTU

Nazwisko: Bromberg

Imiona: Jakub

Nazwisko i imię ojca: Bromberg Józef

Nazw. i imię pan. matki: z Kuzubinskiej Maria

Miejsce i data urodzenia: Bodzentyn 21 kwietnia 1919 r.

Miejsce i data chrztu: _____

Uwagi (małż; św. kpt; śl. zak.) _____

Za zgodność z księgą metrykalną
Jakub, dnia 17 maja 1946 r.
 Proboszcz B. Kosiński

m. p.

„Jedność” N. 225. L. 08100

This is my birth certificate. This is a document which tells about my birth, when and where I was born, who my parents were, what name they gave me...

This is a duplicate which was issued after the war, in 1946.

I was born in 1919, on 21st April, the day after Hitler's birthday. This was at home, in Bodzentyn. We were all born there, in the same beds we slept in. A midwife helped Mother during labor, a Pole, Kazubinski's wife. I was the fourth child. I split the younger and the older siblings. And I am the only one left. When I was three I went to cheder and these first years I spent at home. I remember when I was little, I used to run away from Mother, because I didn't like having my bath in a tub. I couldn't even walk yet, so I'd run away on all fours. I will never forget that. I remember even what shirt I used to wear - a flannel shirt with a pink flower pattern. I usually recall myself as being the one in the bad way. I wasn't allowed to go out and play. I had to stay at home and mind the younger brothers and sister. I had to sit next to the cradle and rock it.